[illegible] the North west [illegible] those who [illegible] party [illegible] have [illegible] Since [illegible] we feel no interest in the Republic [illegible] the thieves and carpet baggers who have made [illegible] laws

Grant is President [illegible] the people that want the thieves and [illegible] during the next six months will teach them that history is repeating itself and that it will bankrupt the Government to suppress the festering emotions and the uprising of a people who once free can never be slaves

JUST WHAT THE DEMOCRATIC MISTAKE WAS.

[From the New Orleans Bee]

Thus [illegible] of the South this election teaches a lesson [illegible] by which we should profit We now see that Grant ought from the first to have been the [illegible] of the Democratic party as the only man in the government who was friendly to the South [illegible] and at the same time possessing the confidence of the Republican party and with that [illegible] to the power to restore those States to their place in the Union The Radicals we must admit might have chosen a wiser man [illegible]

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH

Washington [illegible]

The Democratic journals [illegible] of this season still keep up their pleasant [illegible] about General Grant [illegible] papers this morning have an [illegible] has several pleasant little paragraphs about him and announcing that it will hereafter rather eschew politics It is also noticed that the original [illegible] pure Jackson Democratic Association at a meeting last night came to the conclusion that General Grant [illegible] after all a very fine fellow and one member made a suggestion [illegible] the Republicans [illegible] the President himself [illegible] who attended a Republican meeting on Wednesday A serious suggestion was finally made that it would be eminently proper for the association to join in a welcome to Grant on his arrival in this city Several members objected to this proposition on the ground that they would have to march in a procession with negroes A suggestion afterwards made that the association proceed in a body some evening to Grant's residence and tender him their compliments met with the approval of all present after which the association adjourned under the conviction that there was no need to have another meeting

[From the Indianapolis Journal]

Mrs Matthews the mother of the Vice President elect has been for several weeks stopping in this city with her friends

Like the mothers of nearly all our great men she is a noble woman of great intellectual power Mr Colfax owes much of his success to his mother and he fully appreciates it She is a remarkably hale and happy old lady and rejoices in a quiet way over the success of her son

Her only desire for his advancement seems to be that he may be placed in a position to do more good At the age of fifteen she was married to Schuyler Colfax the elder At the age of seventeen she was left a widow with one child Four months after the death of his father Schuyler was born—the elder child died in infancy

Some years later Mrs Colfax was married to Mr Matthews Nearly thirty years ago the young couple with little Schuyler and other children that had been born to them removed to New Carlyle Laporte county, Indiana

Since the death of the wife of Schuyler Colfax his mother has presided over his house in Washington with grace and dignity She will soon so rumor says be relieved from the duties of the position by Miss Nellie Wade of Ohio who is to become the wife of the Vice President before the end of the present month Mrs Matthews we are informed will continue to reside with her son in Washington May she live for many years to give him wise counsel and grace the society of the capital

THE ELECTION FRAUDS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK Nov [illegible]—The investigation [illegible] A T Stewart W H Aspinwall [illegible] Republicans have subscribed [illegible] If these [illegible] in this city are carried to Albany the rate of State taxation will be greatly increased

Several arrests for fraudulent voting were made to day Half a dozen men have offered to testify against the Tammany Committee provided they will not be prosecuted The Union League Committee [illegible] fraudulent naturalization papers [illegible] in Jersey City were arrested to day on warrants from the United States Court

The [illegible] of the Union League Club last night [illegible] causes alarm among the [illegible] It is reported that John A Griswold [illegible] A T Stewart [illegible] pledged themselves to give [illegible] A number of persons [illegible] they registered and when they went to the polls were told they had not registered Every one of these cases is [illegible] of the frauds [illegible] the city It is rumored that several [illegible] to swear themselves repeaters and that after voting here they went over to Jersey City and Newark and voted again

Horace Greeley in a speech before the Union League testified of his personal knowledge [illegible] instances of illegal voting [illegible]

The Post remarks The returns from this city show the startling fact that in more than twenty districts the poll of the vote exceeds the registered vote all the way from five to fifty It is by such infamous frauds together with the illegal naturalization that the State of New York is made to give a Democratic majority Let these cases be at once attended to and let no effort be spared until every election district the vote of which has been swelled by fraud is rejected as they must be even if the case has to be carried to the highest judicial tribunal in the State

THE TROUBLE IN FLORIDA

WASHINGTON Nov 8—The trouble in Florida is to a considerable extent personal Gov Reed and Lieutenant Governor Gleason were both from Wisconsin The Governor is an old journalist always a Republican and is a man of considerable culture The Lieutenant Governor was a lumberman and Democratic politician at the breaking out of the war He is a man of some force but entirely without culture The Governor represents the moderate element and the views of the Republican party while the Lieutenant Governor is an extremist of the extremists The new constitution gives the Governor a great deal of patronage and the immediate cause of the present quarrel is in the fact that he has not made appointments satisfactory to the Lieutenant Governor and his friends The Mr Jenkins who brought forward articles of impeachment is one of the Gleason faction The Legislature came together last Tuesday for the sole and single purpose of casting the electoral vote of the State and whether the articles are or not well founded it is clear that this was not the proper time for preferring them

SENATOR MORGAN

WASHINGTON Nov 10—Politicians from New York say that Senator Morgan is sure of a re-election from that State this winter by the Legislature and that no one can make any material show in trying to run against him

NEW JERSEY

New Jersey politicians say the Democratic Legislature of that State will elect John P Stockton who was expelled two years ago to Frelinghuysen's place

THE INTELLIGENCER'S PROPHECIES

The Intelligencer this morning thinks the signs of the times all show that the Republican party will break up during the next administration and that Grant will form a new party of Conservative Republicans and Progressive Democrats which will sweep everything before it in the campaign of 187

BROWNLOW ON REBEL SUFFRAGE

NASHVILLE Nov 10—There was a quorum in the Senate to day and the Governor's message was read The following are the remarkable passages referring to the franchise

Strenuous efforts were being made at your recent extraordinary session to induce you to extend the franchise and include within it those who by the law and constitution of the State are deprived thereof Not unlikely the attempt will be renewed and enforced during your present meeting There should be a discrimination exercised concerning those who were in the rebellion They are not all alike culpable for the past nor untrustworthy for the future For those who were involuntarily drawn into the service of rebellion and who since its utter failure have given evidence that they accept the result in good faith that they are good citizens quiet and law abiding, that they have strictly observed their paroles that they will not use political power to proscribe and degrade those whom the war has emancipated and invested with the rights of citizenship for disfranchised persons of this description the franchise might safely and therefore wisely be extended The extension should however be applied with suitable guarantees and checks that advantage could not be taken of its liberties to the danger and harm of the State As to the other class of rebels who entered into it voluntarily and continued in it from choice until their arms were wrenched out of their hands and who since the surrender and in [illegible] their parole have continued to work for the lost cause who are restless agitators who have [illegible] violence and lawlessness who have [illegible] to public distrust and restiveness—the question of the restoration to full civil rights is very different If the time should ever come when they should be thus restored I submit that it would probably be when the last dollar of the national debt incurred in suppressing the rebellion has been paid and when those unrepentant and unreconstructed rebels had restored to the ballot box the half million voters who now sleep in premature graves These suggestions are made in no vindictive hostility to those persons as men [illegible] they spring from considerations affecting the public peace [illegible] Withholding the franchise [illegible] for the safety and [illegible]

[illegible] THE ELECTION NEWS

After depositing his vote for Congressional and State candidates General Grant went to the house of E B Washburne where arrangements had been made to receive the telegraphic returns The first report was from J G Blaine—Maine [illegible] thirty thousand majority and she [illegible] kept her faith The next announcement was received from Wm E Chandler that New Hampshire had gone Republican by at least five thousand majority Soon reports came in thick and fast from all parts [illegible] but as yet they are [illegible] Many [illegible] of General [illegible] anxious to hear the news [illegible] several days before [illegible] except as each State was [illegible] The two States first [illegible] exactly the majority he had predicted [illegible] the Presidential candidate seemed [illegible] his political sagacity than success Indeed during the evening he manifested neither anxiety or elation while every one else was excited as the returns came in The [illegible] as calm as ever and the calm which he had displayed at Vicksburg and at Appomattox was conspicuous as if he had still been at the head of a million soldiers

Galena which had almost always been strongly Democratic and had given McClellan a majority [illegible] was announced as having [illegible] Seymour's own Deerfield [illegible] the funeral was doomed [illegible] He had [illegible] 53 000 majority in Massachusetts [illegible] the old Bay State [illegible] As the [illegible] the Republicans [illegible] Pennsylvania Ohio and Indiana [illegible] Missouri [illegible] California [illegible] lakes and West Virginia with an unexpectedly large majority took her place while Nevada and Nebraska reached across the Rocky Mountains [illegible] the Alleghanies Bands of music saluted [illegible] from the streets fireworks illuminated the neighborhood and cannon announced the [illegible] of Grant But Grant was still [illegible] and imperturbable as ever His adherents were excited but his equanimity was undisturbed At length word was brought that North Carolina was [illegible] once more the first Southern State that had [illegible] since 1860 The room was crowded with Congressmen Judges town and country politicians army officers reporters, all apparently more eager than the man on whose account they were gathered

While they compared the returns and lingered [illegible] more a despatch arrived from Petroleum V Nasby who forwarded his resignation as postmaster and announced that he had gone into the grocery business After this the torrent of news and congratulations was incessant interrupted only by the comments of the little party but more than the requisite number of electoral votes was now secure and by degrees the citizens dropped away and a little after midnight the President elect of the United States retired from the [illegible] of his latest triumph as modestly as he had left the little house at Appomattox, where four years ago he received the previous surrender of the enemies of his country

THE NEWS AT SEYMOUR'S HEADQUARTERS.

[From the Utica (N Y) Herald, Nov 4.]

Last evening Mechanics' Hall was filled at an early hour with Union men to listen to the election returns. The first news, from the wards of the city was of a most encouraging character It served to put the whole crowd in a happy state of mind and the feeling was increased by successive telegrams until the people were ready to shout and sing for very joy

"Deerfield Seymour's own district, repudiates him by five majority" was announced from the platform This news was more than the most sanguine dared to hope and it was received with a perfect storm of applause Now and then an occasional Democrat could be seen in the hall They had no money to put up, not even on the State At 8 o clock the Union gun commenced its proclamation of victory Every shot [illegible] the hopes of the Union men, every shot sank deeply into the hearts of the few disconsolate Democrats

At 10 o clock a telegram was read announcing the State had gone Republican by at [illegible] 10,000 majority This was the first grand culmination Everybody shook hands with his neighbor, and everybody shouted and cheered for Gen Grant Speeches were made and general congratulations were exchanged. This is the bright side of the picture

The dark side of the same picture was displayed at the Butterfield House, the Democratic headquarters Seymour left Utica in his private carriage driving toward Deerfield at four o'clock It is presumed he voluntarily went home, where the verdict of the people, an hour later, [illegible] he should remain

The Butterfield House was thronged with Democrats The roar of the Union gun didn't please them, the pleasant faces and congratulations of the Republicans annoyed them and the returns displeased worried and rendered the poor fellows almost furious with disappointment. No pleasant faces, no cheers, no [illegible] every announcement was like a wet blanket on their drooping spirits Even the news in New York city failed to awaken anything like enthusiasm Said a Democrat "There's no comfort here! Where's Seymour?" Up stairs went the waiter to find Seymour He soon returned with the announcement "Seymour is probably home in Deerfield" "Retired to private life," said another friend. "Gone to the devil," said a third "Let's give him one more chance and die game," suggested a fourth. And then an effort was made by one or two to [illegible], but the [illegible] was so [illegible] that the tiger was [illegible] Before twelve o'clock the Democratic headquarters were nearly deserted by "friends" of the "eminent statesman" They, following the example of their leader, concluded to [illegible] to private life.

HUNGRY OFFICE SEEKERS.

[Washington Dispatch (Nov 10th) to the Chicago Tribune]

Letters and telegrams from all parts of the country are pouring in on the lines Most of the writers claim to have been original Grant men, and want an office. It may be interesting to [illegible] persons, as well as to the country at large, to know that all letters are opened by one of the staff officers, and that those asking for office or money are destroyed as soon as their purport is ascertained This morning about 360 letters were on hand The staff officer charged with the duty of opening got along with his work at the rate of about one per minute Of the first hundred opened General Grant did not look at a single one About twenty relating to army affairs or private soldiers matters were reserved for future examination while the seventy five or eighty from office seekers were at once torn into pieces and thrown into the waste paper basket. The persons therefore who intend writing about that little post office or that assessorship, might as well save their time ink, paper, envelopes and postage for their letters, whether marked private, personal or confidential, will invariably be destroyed by the staff officer whose duty it will be to examine them and General Grant will not even know that they have been received He has nothing to do with office giving till next spring, and does not intend to be bored with the matter till it is necessary he should be

NOTABLE NEWSPAPER CHANGE

LOUISVILLE Nov 7—The Journal and Courier have consolidated and will appear to-morrow morning as the Louisville Courier and Journal. The following notice to the public explains the transaction, which is the all absorbing topic of conversation to night

An experience of six months of the most active and sustained competition known to the journalism of the country convinces that neither the time nor situation justify the publication of two rival Democratic newspapers in Louisville on so large a plan as pursued by the Louisville Courier and Louisville Journal Rather than reduce the character of either for an enterprise of the first class and in order to furnish a paper reaching in all points the exacting demands of the public we have arranged a combination of both under the style and title of the Louisville Courier and Journal The consolidation of two such presses enables us to produce a journal much superior in every respect to its predecessors distancing at once all competition and assuming a circulation influence and value enjoyed by no paper out of New York Under this arrangement W N Halderman takes the business and H Watterson the editorial management of the Courier and Journal with complete and efficient corps of writers reporters and correspondents including George D Prentice

SATURDAY MORNING NOV [illegible] 1868

The Presidential Electors

There can be little doubt in the mind of any well informed person that if the legal votes thrown in this State on the 3d inst a[illegible] majority were for the Grant and Colfax Electors. There is already satisfactory evidence that in this county thirty illegal votes were thrown for the Democratic Electors, and we doubt not anything like a full investigation would discover many more. The principal part of the illegal voting however was done in the eastern counties. In Grant [illegible] Ladd had a large lot of teamsters, few of whom were entitled to vote in Oregon, but who all nevertheless voted. We make this statement on the authority of responsible men in Grant county. The Democrats expected to lose that county and the Republicans certainly would have carried it had it not been for this illegal accession to the Democratic ranks. In Union large numbers of the transient class voted and it was this reinforcement that increased the Democratic majority in that county. The same thing was done in Umatilla. In that quarter of the State the Democrats boast that they can always get gipsies enough to vote with them to beat any majority the Republicans can obtain in the settled and more civilized parts of the State. Many of this class live nowhere. They have spent several years in the region indefinitely known as the "upper country," trading, packing, mining or following the road, operating in different places as chance or inclination has led them. We have heard it stated by well informed men from the eastern counties that they had no doubt if the matter were thoroughly investigated, that enough votes could be found on the poll books thrown for the Democratic Electors by persons who voted last summer in Idaho to more than make up the majority which those Electors have received in the State. We would like to see this matter contested, but how to get at it is a question not easily answered.

Where does the authority rest to decide contests of this description? There have never been, so far as we have been able to ascertain, any contested elections in the matter of Presidential Electors. We know of no law either on the State or National Statute books providing for and governing such contests. The Secretary of State in each State transmits to each Elector a certificate of his election. The Electors assemble on the first Wednesday of December, at such place as the Legislature may designate, and there vote for President and Vice President. Three lists of the votes given for each office are to be made out, signed, sealed and certified by the Electors. One of these lists is sent to the seat of government of the United States by a messenger appointed for that purpose, another is sent by mail to the President of the Senate, and the third is deposited with the Judge of the United States District Court for the District in which the Electors assemble.

The necessity of a law to determine the choice of electors is very apparent. For instance, it is perfectly certain that Democrats have secured the electoral vote of New York by fraud. Suppose the election of General Grant had depended upon his securing this vote,—would it not be an unexampled outrage that the will of the nation should be thwarted by the crimes of the corrupt Tammany ring? If Congress possesses any power to provide for the defense of the popular will against such dishonest combinations and practices, that power should be exercised at once, and if Congress does not possess the power, the States should immediately enact laws for the purpose. There is danger of a future controversy arising out of a case of this kind which may produce a tremendous commotion, and perhaps civil war. Perhaps a constitutional amendment may be necessary to settle this and several other things connected with the choice of President, which are but imperfectly provided for by law. There ought to be a legal remedy for every possible contingency. The violent excitement over the election of President in 1800, which nearly led to revolution, produced one amendment to the Constitution, and it is worth while to consider what should be done to meet the case which circumstances have now suggested. As no election is now pending, the present is exactly the time to settle these matters.

REWARDED.—Some days ago a telegraphic despatch stated that one Bayley had received the appointment of Supervisor of Internal Revenue for Oregon, Idaho etc. We take it that the appointee is Dr Bayley of Corvallis. Whether this is a reward given him for his vote in the Legislature of this State against the Fourteenth Amendment in 1866, and his general crooked course in politics we are not informed, but such seems to be the probability. It is rumored that Bayley will not accept this position, as he expects a better appointment from President Grant. The Republicans of Oregon are not going to be unreasonable about this matter of appointments for their State, but they feel decidedly like giving a hint to those instrumental in these things at Washington, that unless true men are appointed they will take no responsibility for the consequences. The Republicans do not want to fight both the Democrats and the Federal officers for the next four years. There is an unreliable class who never know what side they are on except in the hour of victory, and then they are clamorous for places of profit and influence. These cases as they come up shall receive our attention.

NEGRO SUPREMACY.—Before the election Democratic papers were filled with lamentations for the oppressed South, which they described as disfranchised and crushed under the heel of "negro supremacy." But since the election we hear no more of that terrible bugaboo. The helpless condition of the poor white rebels was not made manifest at the polls. In Louisiana where the Republicans have 20,000 majority of the registered vote what is the result? By a system of intimidation, violence and assassination the armed Democrats prevented their unarmed opponents from voting and swept the State. Even General Rousseau, whose Democratic faith is well known, bears witness to this fact. He says the Republicans could not vote without endangering their lives.

THAT'S IT.—The St Louis Rep[illegible], the Copperhead revolutionary organ of Missouri, laments in this wise: "Grant has been elected. The Republican party has again been triumphant. It triumphed as the Anti Slavery party in 1860 and the War party in 1864 and this year as the alleged Peace party." This [illegible] should have added that the Democratic party was defeated in 1860 as the Slavery party, in 1864 as the "Peace" party, and in 1868 as the "War" party. This is the way the matter stands.

Late Political Items

It is stated that General George H Thomas voted this fall for the first time in his life.

The Leavenworth Conservative of the 11th inst says Grant's majority in Kansas is between 15,000 and 20,000.

Mr Dawes of Massachusetts, seems to be a prominent candidate for Speaker in Congress to succeed Mr Colfax.

The vote in the Fifth Massachusetts District was: Benj F Butler 11,080; Otis P Lord, Democrat, 4,911; Richard H Dana Jr, [illegible].

The Philadelphia Bulletin of the 20th inst figured Grant's majority in Pennsylvania at [illegible]. Four years ago Lincoln had [illegible].

The Springfield Republican predicts that at the first opportunity General Butler will join the Democrats and make open war upon General Grant.

The Boston Post advertises for sale "Eight roosters good as new, never having crowed but once. Sample." [Here is inserted the cut of a lusty crowing rooster.]

Every county in Iowa—ninety seven in all except Dubuque gives a majority for Grant and Colfax. The gallant Republicans of that State have little left to conquer.

The local influence of the La Crosse Democrat may be inferred from the fact that there was not a Democrat elected to any office within one hundred miles of the place of its publication.

Three hundred and twenty one towns in Massachusetts gave Grant and Colfax a majority of 75,344, and Claflin 66,928. The remaining towns will bring Grant's majority up to 76,500 and Claflin's to 68,000.

General James Shields who is just elected to Congress from Missouri is the most indefatigable carpet bagger in the United States. He has already represented Illinois and Minnesota therein, besides having sought Congressional honors in California. He is a Democrat.

The majority for Hon Morton S Wilkinson the Republican candidate for Representative in Congress from the First District of Minnesota is 9,407. The highest Republican majority ever before given in the district was 5,940. Democracy is a plant of slow growth in Minnesota.

The New York World administers all the consolation to Seymour that the nature of his malady will admit of, when it says that "the Presidency with an adverse Congress to thwart him would have been a cramped and fettered position, full of embarrassment and annoyance." Just so.

Iowa has got a wide awake Governor. The Des Moines Register says that Governor Merrill was the first man on hand to vote on the day of the election. On depositing his vote he made a request that there would be "a general charge along the line," and the Republicans did it with a vim.

The Newport, (R I) News says: "Mr August Belmont, the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, spent election day in this city, not even casting his vote for Seymour and Blair. He probably thought it was asking too much of him to help Frank to the Vice Presidency."

At Columbia City (Ind) Gen Grant said to a crowd who waited upon him: "You have heard so much speech making lately that I presume you are tired of it. You have done the talking—now I propose to do the work!" These words from such a man as Grant were regarded by every man who heard them as deeply significant.

Charleston, in which secession began eight years ago, the night after the election of Mr Lincoln to the Presidency, gave a Republican majority of 1,355 last Tuesday. There's a change in the Palmetto city, but it is not precisely of the kind that was contemplated by Rhett, Miles, Hampton, Keitt, Trenholm & Co, when they began rebellion in 1860.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

BERLIN, Nov 26.—Thanksgiving day was observed here by services in the morning at the American Chapel and by a dinner in the afternoon, given by Hon Geo Bancroft. A large party was present including several members of the Prussian Ministry and other officers and literary persons.

LONDON, Nov 26.—The total number of members of Parliament elected up to the present time is 615. The Liberals have 119 majority.

Riots broke out in Tredegar yesterday during election. Much damage was done to property. The authorities were obliged to call on troops to suppress the disturbances. The ringleaders were arrested and order is now restored.

The case of Watson vs Walker, of the London Times in which the defendant was sued for damages for publishing a Parliamentary debate containing language injurious to the personal character of the plaintiff, was up before the Court of Queen's Bench, and was decided against the plaintiff, the court ruling that the complaint was not actionable.

It is understood that the British claims for indemnity, based on cases adjudicated in American courts of admiralty, will not be entertained by the Alabama commission.

DUBLIN, Nov 26.—A requiem mass was celebrated at Cork and Queenstown for the repose of the souls of the Fenians executed at Manchester. In both cases great demonstrations were made, the people attending in large numbers. There was no interference on the part of the authorities and order was maintained.

LONDON, Nov 26.—Several persons have been arrested in Paris by the police, for making speeches at public meetings.

PARIS, Nov 26.—The Moniteur du Soir in an editorial on the Presidential election says Grant's large majority will insure concord and tranquility, and it believes his policy will be to heal wounds of the late war by measures of conciliation. The same journal in an article on South American affairs, says the hopes held by the allied powers of ending the war with Paraguay have not been realized. It adds that President Lopez is strongly entrenched at Villita, and will continue the war even after the fall of Ascension.

FROM THE NORTH

Dispatch from Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Nov 27.—This evening about 8 o'clock a fracas occurred in Damphoffer's lager beer saloon, between Henry Leonard and John Minni, which terminated by Minni inflicting a very dangerous wound in Leonard's abdomen with a pocket knife. Particulars not known. Minni was immediately arrested by Deputy Sheriff Beal, Wood, Marshal Weeden and lodged in jail.

POLITICAL GAMBLERS.—Speaking of the recent financial panic a Chicago paper says: "The boldest game ever played in American politics, to overreach and catch Republican voters was the twenty million corner on the money market, the knocking down of prices, the sudden cramp on dealers and speculators, the swindling swing of Seymour going forth as an avant courier or forerunner to proclaim the coming of a currency contraction which his confederates had advised and prepared. But bold as the game was and skillfully as it was played, it utterly failed to catch a single vote. It was the last card in the hands of the Copperhead blacklegs, but it did not take the 'trick.'"

ANOTHER ORGAN.—Many Democrats of this city have become exceedingly disgusted with Beriah's imbecile drivel through the organ, and seeing no hope for improvement are anxious to have another paper started which shall show more life, energy and ability. We heard yesterday that measures were on foot to bring out a new Democratic organ which shall more nearly answer the requirements of the times. We should welcome the appearance of a Democratic paper of respectable character and ability. Beriah has been banging his old tin kettle so long that the sound has become about as entertaining and instructing as the continued clang of a Chinese gong.

True to his habit of running behind his ticket Mr Seymour runs behind in his own county (Oneida), and what is worse for him Oneida gives a Republican majority increased over former years. Thus, Lincoln had a majority of [illegible] and Grant has 1,344. Last year the Republican majority was only 603.

DATES TO NOVEMBER 26

The Iron Clad Oath

RICHMOND, Nov 25.—Chief Justice Chase today decided that the iron clad oath should not be administered to the Grand Jurymen as it rather hindered than furthered the ends of justice. A new Grand Jury was then summoned under the Constitution, which only took the oath to support the Constitution of the United States.

NEW YORK, Nov 25.—The Commercial says Thurlow Weed's health is so poor that he will be unable to visit Washington this winter.

Louisiana Affairs

WASHINGTON, Nov [illegible].—Colonel Keller of Gen Rousseau's staff arrived yesterday with the General's report of operations in his department. Col Keller represents that the hostility of the white people of Louisiana in general to the present State Government is more bitter and intense than with those under General Rousseau's command. During the recent troubles it was utterly impossible to preserve the peace at all points. Every disposition of his troops was made and every possible means was taken to protect the people in their rights without regard to party. The Republicans did not generally vote because they were advised by their leaders not to attempt to do so, who believed they could not do so with safety to their persons. In this opinion Gen Rousseau concurred, but with the means at his command he was powerless to establish a different order of things. General Rousseau was in conversation with Gov Warmouth and other State authorities during the disturbance and his course met their warm approval as it does the approval of all classes in New Orleans. Colonel Keller states that up to the date of General Stedman's assuming charge of the police force it was utterly worthless and was composed of 243 negroes and 130 whites. No riots have occurred since and no city has been more orderly or quiet. General Rousseau courts a more thorough investigation of his management of Louisiana affairs during the recent troubles.

Col Keller says there is no foundation for reports of organizations in New Orleans to help the Cuban insurgents.

The Difficulty with Paraguay.

WASHINGTON, Nov 25.—Several unofficial letters have been received in this city relative to the Paraguayan difficulty. It has been stated that the English and French Governments had each sent a man of war to Paraguay. These vessels appear to have returned, as will be seen by the following extracts from a private letter from Rear Admiral Davis dated Rio Janeiro, Oct 26th. He says:

Rear Admiral Frequercomely of the French Naval Division in this station, with whom I am on terms of intimate intercourse, came yesterday and furnished me with some information recently received from the Captain of the gunboat [illegible] in regard to his recent visit to Lopez. He contradicts the extravagant stories which have been busily circulated, charging Lopez with various crimes against humanity, particularly with the assassination of certain Consuls—for example, the French Consul and the Portugese Consul. The French Consul left Paraguay on the Decidera. He had been under no apprehension for his life or safety. Rear Admiral George Ramsey commanding the British naval force in this station, with whom my relations have been very cordial, has just come on board to give me similar information.

The Southern States

TALLAHASSEE, Nov 25.—The Supreme Court have sustained Governor Reed's position unanimously. They decide that no Legislature, assembled under Gov Reed's proclamation for an extra session, can impeach, and even if it had been a legal assembly that the form of impeachment was irregular and not in accordance with law or precedent. They declare that the mere passage of a resolution of impeachment does not impeach. A colored Senator who was present states that when the articles of impeachment were presented, the Senate had not a quorum of members in attendance at the session and in the Senate chamber. Little doubt exists that a writ of quo warranto will be issued. Arguments for and against under the rule nisi will begin to-morrow and may continue several days.

JACKSON, Miss, Nov 25.—The Republican State Convention met to-day. J L Morphies was made permanent President. A committee was appointed to prepare an address for the Convention to Congress. A resolution was adopted requesting Congress to secure the right of suffrage to every loyal citizen in every State in the United States not disfranchised by crime.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov 25.—A man on board the steamer Sarah from Mobile for New Orleans was robbed of $9,000 last night. There is no clue to the robbers.

The Railroad War.

NEW YORK, Nov 26.—Yesterday, immediately after granting the order by Justice Sutherland, Receiver Henry E Davis went to the Erie buildings and obtained possession. It is reported that Davis with his counsel Noah E. Davis, D B Eaton and one or two others, went to the Erie buildings and found the great iron gate closed. The janitor having known Eaton as counsel for the company and supposing all to be right, opened the door to him and his party, who proceeded at once to the President's room, and there found not only Fiske and Gould, but their counsel, Burrell and Porter. The intruders served an order also on several officers who happened to be present. Fiske, it is said, called up some of the employees of the company and with no little asperity ordered Eaton to leave, but he was induced by counsel present to retract his remarks. The Receiver remains in possession, but how long can only be told from moment to moment. One injunction at least has been issued by Judge Cardoza, and possibly more are in preparation.

The Alabama Claims.

NEW YORK, Nov 26.—The Herald's Washington dispatch states that the convention agreed upon by Minister Johnson and Lord Stanley for the settlement of the Alabama claims is undoubtedly in the hands of the President. It provides for the appointment of three commissioners—two by Great Britain.

Democratic Operations in Arkansas

PORTLAND, Nov 26.—A dispatch from Bathville, Arkansas states that Capt Edward W Thompson acting District Attorney in Arkansas has been shot and mortally wounded by persons who took offense at his voting for Grant. Capt Thompson was formerly of the First Maine battery.

The Fenians

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 26.—The Fenians made a grand demonstration to-day in honor of the Fenian Congress now in session here. An escort of 1,000 soldiers and civilians conducted the delegates through the principal streets. The Fenian Congress will get actively at work to-morrow. The first business in order will be the consideration of the President's address, which was received yesterday.

The Alabama Claims

NEW YORK, Nov 26.—The Herald's Washington special gives what purports to be the substance of a Convention between Minister Johnson and Lord Stanley, which received the approval of the British government. It is now under consideration by the President. All claims are to be submitted to a commission of persons, two of whom are to be selected by Queen Victoria and two by the President, to meet in Washington. It shall examine and decide according to justice and equity without fear, favor or affection. In case the Commissioners are unable to agree upon any claim, they shall select an arbitrator or the sovereign of Europe friendly to both governments whose decision shall be final and absolute. The convention prescribed the manner in which evidence shall be taken and the decision rendered. Each government shall appoint one person to attend the Commission and an agent in its behalf to perfect the report and reply to the claims and represent it generally. In all matters connected with the investigation both contracting parties shall agree to consider the decision of the Commissioners absolute and conclusive and give full effect to such decision without evasion or delay. Every claim must be represented within six months after the first meeting, unless good reason shall be shown to account for delay, in which case the time may be extended not exceeding three months. The Commissioners are bound to examine and decide upon every claim within a year from the first meeting. All sums of money allowed by the Commission on any claims shall be paid [illegible] within twelve months without interest or deduction. This plan may be changed to give us an equal representation in the Commission and have meetings at Washington and London alternatively.

Snow at the East

NEW YORK, Nov 26.—A heavy northwest snow storm has prevailed since daylight. Out door sports for which there had been considerable preparations were dispensed with, except a few target excursions. The churches were thinly attended.

Further Foreign News

WASHINGTON, Nov 26.—A dispatch says the British Legation has at length produced a bill against the U S Government as an offset to the [illegible] claims amounting to forty five millions [illegible] damages alleged to have been sustained by British subjects in the South during the rebellion.

The Russian Legation deny that $2,000,000 of the Alaska purchase money has been expended in securing the good will of Senators and Congressmen for the passage of the appropriation bill. Six millions of the purchase money has been paid.

There were slight evidences of an earthquake at [illegible] Massachusetts a few days ago.

MONTREAL, Nov 26.—Six weeks ago a man of this city deserted his wife and absconded with a widow taking his wife's money and leaving her entirely destitute. The wife has since become insane by reason of her troubles and is now in jail until she can be taken to [illegible] Asylum.

NEW YORK, Nov [illegible].—The Western Union Telegraph stock is quoted at [illegible].

In the Supreme Court Judge Sutherland in the case of Belmont vs the Erie Railroad, was called. Several motions by the counsel for defence were overruled or otherwise disposed of. The order was finally reported. The order was finally settled. It decrees Judge Davis receiver of the Erie Company. It directs that all persons holding funds, property, bonds, papers etc belonging to such corporation shall deliver the same to him as receiver under his authority. It also provides for the payment by the receiver of the expenses necessary to operate the road. [illegible] was appointed referee by the counsel. The arguments in the Rosenberg case (for election fraud) were concluded to-day. The decision will be given on Friday.

It is stated that since Fisk, Gould & Co became managers of the Erie Railroad Company it has cost the company $1,000,000 for executive and legal services.

Nevada Dispatch

AUSTIN, Nev, Nov 25.—James M Graves, of Graves & Fallon, Belmont Junction, says when he left there yesterday morning the reported discovery of something rich a few miles out of town. It appears that an Indian brought into town pieces of [illegible] ore which displayed $500 to the ton and stated there were large quantities of the same kind. His story and specimens brought caused great excitement, and when Mr Graves left nearly every man had gone.

The stage which left Argenta yesterday, with ten passengers and a very heavy load of express mail and baggage, when at Trout creek, about 50 miles north of this city, upset, being driven by a drunken driver named Harvey. CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money, for instance: Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Hahn & Fishel, well knowing that at that House they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

Meeting at Vancouver.—The people of Vancouver seem to be greatly excited on the railroad question. A meeting was held at Brant's Hall on the evening of the 21st, at which speeches were made by Rev. [illegible], B W Brown, I T Maulsby, A G Cooke, [illegible] Capt Adams and Judge Dowell. The object of the meeting was to secure the crossing of the Oregon and Puget Sound Railroad at Vancouver, and to that end the speakers urged upon the people to contribute to the extent of their ability toward of constructing a bridge across the Columbia. The presence of one encourages and inspires another. The and co-operation of the ladies is especially requested. Remember, two o'clock, Brant's Hall, Saturday, Nov. 28. Come everybody, rain or shine. In a multitude of counsellors there is wisdom; two heads are better than one, and many heads and hearts and hands Citizens of Clarke county and Vancouver, ask you that you do not allow this golden opportunity to pass unimproved. This is probably the public meeting on this subject that will be held. Let us make the occasion interesting and by a full attendance.

the Situation.—Sometime ago when the China bill was pending in the Legislature, Dr. Jim, a Chinese M. D., wrote a letter on the which was published in the OREGONIAN as a curiosity. It was generally admitted that Dr had the best of the argument. The Doctor has satisfaction that the kind intentions of friend in the Legislature came to grief, with the following: ned, take great pleasure in testifying about the tax on Chinamen who two very sad and sorrow. Now I hear the faithful Governor, Hon. Geo. L. Woods, be good law to even the Chinamen, who will many to not be killed and not starved enjoyment of the happy law and very you, Hon Geo L Woods. Stage and Railroad Fares.—A day or two the correctness of the figures given as to cost of stage and railroad fares San Francisco and New York. The Herald price at $580 in gold, and denounced the railroad as "the most gigantic swindle of this age." We had not then noticed the advertisement of Wells, Fargo & Co., in the San Francisco could not, therefore, say how far from the it was; but we have since found in several papers an advertisement by the they propose to take passengers to Pacific Railroads and Wells, Fargo & Co's days at the following prices in currency: $254 25, Chicago, $259 25, Washington, $270 75, etc. These prices are not ing the distance and the quick are not greater than the cost now of travel ia or Oregon.

Mr started on Sunday overland to San Francisco, and it is the intention to get the within the next six weeks. Mr Patterson Secretary of the Herald Publishing Association, manager of the paper, and Mr Semple editor. We are under the impression that gets well started, they will make it for the fossil of '98.

Benefit.—The splendid comedy of "London Assurance" was performed last evening at Oro Fino to a ly crowded house, on the occasion of tendered by the proprietors, and the members company, to Mrs Bates. The high regard in people of Portland hold Mrs Bates as an actress was clearly shown by the unusually large attendance and by the hearty applause which greeted her last evening and which followed throughout. She appeared to excellent advantage in role of Lady Gay Spanker. At the conclusion called before the curtain. "London Assurance" first in excellence in the list of comedies. WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN NEW JERSEY

[From the Newark Daily Advertiser.]

At an early hour on the 3d of November Mrs Hannah Blackwell, a highly esteemed elderly lady, long a resident in Roseville, and Mrs Lucy Stone, her daughter-in-law, both of them property holders in the county and tax payers, appeared at the polls in Roseville accompanied by Messrs Batngate and Blackwell as witnesses, and offered their votes. The judges of election were divided as to the propriety of receiving the votes of the ladies, one of them stating that he was in favor of doing so, the other two objecting on the ground of their illegality. The ladies stated that they had taken advice of eminent lawyers, and were satisfied that, in New Jersey women were legally entitled to vote from the fact that the old Constitution of the State conferred suffrage upon "all inhabitants" worth £50. Under that Constitution women did in fact very generally vote until in 1807, by an arbitrary act of the Legislature women were excluded from the polls. The new Constitution, adopted in 1844, was framed by a Convention and adopted by a constituency from both of which women were unconstitutionally excluded, so that they have never been allowed to vote upon the question of their own disfranchisement. The article in the present Constitution on the right of suffrage confers it upon white and male citizens, but does not expressly limit it to such. It is claimed that in the absence of any express limitation in the present Constitution and from the compulsory exclusion of the parties interested from its adoption, the political rights of women under the old Constitution still remain. Mrs Stone stated these points to the judges of election with clearness and precision. After consultation the votes of the ladies were refused. The crowd surrounding the polls gathered about the ballot box, and listened to the discussion with respectful attention, but every one behaved with the politeness which gentlemen always manifest in the presence of ladies.

ELECTION INCIDENTS

The Cleveland Plaindealer is being unmercifully laughed at and quizzed. A short time before the election it announced on authority that 400 Jews, in Cleveland, who had voted the Republican ticket in October, would support Seymour and Blair at the November election. It is estimated that 10,000 "Jews, as a class," in the State of Ohio would change their votes, and thus give the State to the Copperheads. But to the astonishment and chagrin of the Dealer, Cleveland more than doubled its Republican majority. The 800 majority given in October was swollen to 2,150 for Grant; and the 1,350 in the State in October has become 43,000 in November. Everybody is now asking the Dealer what has become of the "Jews as a class" who were going to elect Seymour and Blair? The Dealer makes some shocking grimaces, but the more it explains the louder they laugh against it.

The Hartford Courant speaks of an unsuspecting Windsor (Ct.) Democrat who went to the headquarters on Wednesday night, to learn the result. Just as he got to the foot of the stairway leading to the rooms he was accosted by one of the faithful, who said: "The State has gone for Grant." "By golly to thunder, gosh darn it all my stars, you don't tell me so!" "Yes, and that ain't the worst of it—New Haven has gone back on us!" "No, thunder and lightning, you don't tell me so!" "Yes, and that ain't the worst of it. Pennsylvania is all one way for Grant." "Hang my garters, blazes and gimblets, you don't tell me so!" "Yes, and that ain't the worst of it, Ohio cleans us out all through." "Ohio does! I'll be born swoggled, gingerbread and scissors to grind, you don't tell me so." "Yes and that ain't the worst of it, everything is against us, we are completely fluxed out everywhere!" "Is that so? Condemn the gol blasted luck, by jiminy thunder, darn it all to—to—to— I swan to—darn it all—gol blast—you don't tell me so!" At last accounts the old chap was heading homeward.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," A handy little thing about the house, mends everything.

THERE is no mistake about it. PLANTATION BITTERS will ward off Fever and Ague and all kindred diseases, if used in time. No family need suffer from this distressing complaint if they will keep PLANTATION BITTERS in the house, and use it according to directions. The most important ingredient of this medicine is Calisaya or Peruvian Bark, which is known to be the finest and purest tonic in the vegetable kingdom. The extract of this bark is the active principle of all the good Fever and Ague Medicines prescribed by intelligent doctors. Calisaya Bark is used extensively in the manufacture of PLANTATION BITTERS, and we dare say, owe their popularity mostly to that fact. We can recommend them.

Lessons on Piano, Guitar, Violin or Flute $15 per quarter.

CARD.

Having had my attention directed to a "Card" in the Oregonian, and Herald, signed by eleven of the jurymen in the case of Heath vs. Drs. Glisan and Wilson, professing to give an account of the standing of the jury in the above case, I have to say that I had supposed what transpired while the jury were deliberating on a case, was a matter for themselves only to know. But it seems that the defendants in the above case saw fit to employ one of their attorneys to go around among the members of the jury, after they were discharged, (I won't say before) for the purpose of ascertaining the secrets of the jury room, and they [illegible] revealed a part, and only a part, of their proceedings while having the case under advisement. I have only to add, that I am credibly informed that one of the jurymen who signed the "Card," states that its contents were incorrect in many particulars and that the statement published in the Oregonian on the authority of one of my attorneys, was correct. As to the certificate of the jury stating that defendants were vindicated, I will say, that persons wishing to employ COMPETENT Surgeons will do well to examine my arm before employing those whom I was so unfortunate to engage.

Let us be Merciful to Ourselves.—The physical structure of the strongest human being is vulnerable everywhere. Our bodies are endowed by nature with a certain negative power, which protects them to some extent from unwholesome influences, but this protection is imperfect and cannot be safely relied on in unhealthy regions, or under circumstances of more than ordinary danger. Therefore it is wise, it is prudent, [illegible] against such contingencies, by taking an antidote in advance, or in other words, by fortifying the system with a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most complete protective against all the epidemic and endemic maladies that have ever been administered in any country. G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 635 AND 637 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal beverage of eminently salutary qualities, manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstruction of the Bladder and Kidneys, its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the [illegible] first introduced it to the American public, and [illegible] that time he has received [illegible] letters from physicians endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the produce of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acid particle.

As a means of preventing and arresting those distressing and often dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water, a visitant to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible, while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

ARE YOU WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart, or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are the whole course [illegible] miserable existence from the effects of [illegible] from virus absorbed into the system [illegible] pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life [illegible] Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible life destroying maladies see that they are cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chains uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath cough consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained about [illegible] immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are among the shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupation in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
